

Chulalongkorn University

Thailand's first institution of higher education was founded in 1917 by King Vajiravudh to honor his father, King Chulalongkorn, whose reign marked the beginning of modern education in Thailand. Since its inception, Chulalongkorn University has maintained a reputation for the excellence of its academic standards. Ranked as one of the top universities in Thailand by the QS University Rankings, this comprehensive university offers a wide range of programs, both regular and international, at the undergraduate and graduate level.
